

Fund Descriptions

Below are links to the descriptions for the Nicholas School Internship Funds. More information on each fund can be found in Career Link->CPDC Resources->Internship Funding. When prompted to convert file, choose HTML Document.

David Brower Fund

The David Brower Fund provides financial support for Nicholas School of the Environment students interested in working as interns in grassroots environmental advocacy organizations that exemplify David Brower's uncompromising commitment to preserving natural ecosystems, opposing "technological fixes," and upholding the spirit of conservation represented by the strong environmental laws of the 1970's.

David Brower Fund Description.pdf

Environmental Internship Fund

The Environmental Internship Fund (EIF), an organization of students from the Nicholas School of the Environment at Duke University, is devoted to enhancing the diversity of student interests and experiences.

Environmental Internship Fund Description.pdf

KLN Fund

The KLN Fund is a Nicholas School internship endowment for in-country summer internships or research projects. Friends and family established this internship endowment to perpetuate the philosophy and ideals demonstrated by the work of three individuals of the class of 1992 who tragically lost their lives: Kerrie Kuzmier, Steve Lee, and Pavlik Nikitine.

KLN Internship Fund Description.pdf

Nicholas School Fund

The Nicholas School Fund provides seed support for MEM/MF international internships or summer research projects.

Nicholas School International Internship Fund Description.pdf

Whitney Chamberlain Fund

The Whitney Chamberlain Fund encourages students to pursue meaningful internships that explore the interrelation of business (community development/economic growth) and protection of the environment. This fund has been created in the memory of Nicholas School student Whitney Lawson Chamberlain.

Whitney Chamberlain Fund Description.pdf