CAIRNS WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

Happy Monday, 2021 Cohort!

We hope you all had a wonderful weekend. Welcome to the very first addition of the CAIRNS weekly newsletter. This newsletter will keep you updated with the ongoings of the program as well as current events in the sustainability field.

Some exciting news - we have selected your mentors! We had an amazing applicant pool of eager NSOE graduate students and alumni who are excited to meet you all. They will be starting their mentor training process soon, and we cannot wait for you all to meet them!

Updates on the September Cohort Meeting:

Due to difficulty in finding a time where everyone is available, we have decided to move the meeting to a Thursday sometime in the afternoon/evening. We are excited to have set a date for our first meeting.... please mark your calendars for Thursday, September 23! We do have to ask you all to fill out another When2Meet (fingers crossed this will be the last one!) in the hopes of finding a 1-1.5 hour period where everyone will be able to meet. We want to accommodate for everyone's busy schedules, and ensure that everyone can join in on the meeting!
