

Rick Scott has more than thirty years of executive financial management, strategy development, and operational experience. He has raised over $150 million in capital for companies and $1 billion for investors via exits. Rick has been involved in a number of start-up ventures including serving as the Chief Financial Officer, Secretary, and Treasurer for Cronos Integrated Microsystems; Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer for Nextreme Thermal Solutions, Inc.; and currently, President of Scott CFO Resources, Inc. His proven success, along with IPO, SEC, and extensive M&A experience, with the perspective of both buyer and seller, has made him a respected leader in his field. Rick holds a B.S. in Business Administration and Mathematics from Tusculum College, an MBA from the Wharton School of Business, and is a licensed CPA in North Carolina and Ohio.